A CLEVER RUSE.

Remember This When You Next Purchase Costly Jewels.

How Mr. Pierpoint Morgan made his millions would take volumes to relate, but an amusing little article by means of which he succeeded in saving $1,000 can be told within the brief space of a couple of paragraphs.

Some years ago a jeweler from a New York saw the financier's fine pearl, offering it to him for $5,000. This Mr. Morgan decided to purchase, and two checks were made out—one for $5,000 and the other for $4,000. He then removed the pearl from its box and, having substituted for it the $5,000 check, cashed both checks.

Mr. Morgan's clerk was next dispatched to the jeweler's with the sealed box and a note containing the check for $4,000, stating that Mr. Morgan would be pleased to purchase the pearl if they would be satisfied with the check.

The usual price of pearls of like ignorance and course, of what the sealed package now contained—closed with the astute financier's offer. And the box in which the $5,000 check serenely reposed was returned to Mr. Morgan unopened!—Pearson's.

"Generally disabled for years. Had sick headaches, lacked ambition, was worn-out and all run-down. Burdock's Blood Bitters made me a well woman."—Mrs. Chas. Freyton, Moosup, Conn.

After the Quarrel.
Kind Old Gentleman! Why have you had trouble with the poor little boy? Johnny outside thoughtfully—"No trouble at all, mister. I've done him up with one hand."—Brooklyn Life.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, small, safe, sure little liver pills. Sol'd by all druggists.

The Visitor—How old are you, Tom? The Boy—Aw, ma says I'm too young to eat the things I like an' too old to cry when I don't 'sen 'em!"

Farmers, mechanics, railroad workers rely on Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Takes the sting out of cuts, burns or bruises stome. Pain cannot stay where it is used.

This is what Hon. Jake Moore, State Warden of Georgia, says of Kodol for Dyspepsia: "E. G. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Dear Sirs—I have suffered more than twenty years from indigestion. About eighteen months ago I had grown so much worse that I could not digest a crust of corn bread and could not retain anything on my stomach. I lost 25 lbs.; in fact I made up my mind that I could not live but a short time, when a friend of mine recommended Kodol. I consented to try it to please him and I was better in one day. I now weigh more than I ever did in my life and am in better health than for many years. Kodol did it. I keep a bottle constantly, and write this hoping that humanity will be benefited. Your very truly, Jake C. Moore, Atlanta, Aug. 10, 1904. Sold by all druggists.

A Curious Grace.

The most curious form, or, rather, expression, of grace after meat which I have ever come across was that customary at Clifford's inn, one of the vanished livery of chancery. The society consisted of two distinct bodies, the principal and ruling body, the clerks, who were fond of having an over-table. At the conclusion of the dinner the chairman of the Kentish mess, first bowing to the principal of the inn, took from the hands of the servitor some small rolls or loaves of bread and, without saying a word, dashed them into the plates of the table after which they were taken away. Solemn silence reigned only by the thumps prevalent during this curious subterfuge for a verbal grace.—Cor. London Chronicle.

Good For Everybody.

Mr. Norman R. Coulter, a prominent architect in the Detroit Building San Francisco, says: "Fully endorse all that has been said of Electric Bitters as a tonic medicine. It is good for every body. It corrects stomach, liver and kidney disorders in a prompt and efficient manner and builds up the system." Electric Bitters is the best spring medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter; as a blood-purifier it is unequalled. 50¢ at Severs' Drug Co.

Soldiers' and Sailors' Bank Deposits.

"It's odd the different sources of bank deposits," remarked a bank official. "For example," he said, "we receive thousands of dollars every year from Cleveland men in the army and navy." "As a minimum sum from 50 a month from privates to $30 or more from some of the officers.

"Most of this is sent to us by direct of the paymaster of the army or navy, as the case may be. Just now we are getting a lot of money sent in from men of the navy returning to the Pacific. The paymaster makes out a list of the various deposits and sends along a check to cover the total amount. Thus the men draw their pay and deposit it without ever seeing it. They pass

Best Heater in the World.

Rev. F. Storck of East Raymond, Maine, says: "I have used Bricken's Arrows Sale for several years, on my old army wound, and other obstinate sores, and find it the best healer in the world. I use it too with great success in my veterinary business." Price 25¢ at Severs' Drug Co.

The shoeing of horses by driving nails through their hoofs is understood to have been introduced into England by William the Conqueror.

No Use to Die.

"I have found out that there is no use to die of lung trouble as long as you can get Dr. King's New Disease Very." Rev. J. P. White, of Rushmore, Pa. "I would not be alive today if only for that wonderful medicine. It loosens up a cough quicker than anything else, and cures lung disease even after the disease is pronounced hopeless." This most reliable remedy for coughs and colds, and grippe, asthma, bronchitis and laryngitis, is sold under guarantee at Severs' Drug Co. 5¢ and $1. Trial bottles free.

Always at It.

"They say that Mrs. Grindley does a great deal of fancy work."

"I should say she did. When she can find nothing else to do, she ruffles her husband's temper."—Detroit Free Press.

Men's Maids.

"Men's maids, yes," said an employ agent at a hotel, "there are more men than men's men or valets. Visit the fashionable hotels of Cleveland, Florida

the Riviera, Egypt, and as you pass open bedroom doors of a morning or an afternoon what do you see? Maids

Reynard the Fox.

Reynard, or, as it is more usually written, Reynardo, the name given to the fox in a famous German epic of the fourteenth century called "Reynard the Fox." The name is really said to be on the state of Germany, the middle ages, the different animals each of which are given a special name typifying different institutions. Thus Reynard the Fox stands for the church, Isengrim the Wolf for the barons, Hesegrim the Fox for the peasants. On either side of the Fox are the Cat and the Hare. Both in the last named case and that of Reynard the person same name given by the author has passed into common speech.

The Queen Bumblebee.

The length of life of a queen bumblebee is probably little more than a year at most. Here is one reason for this belief. She is too busy to mate during the months of summer and soon after leaves the nest, leading a vagabond existence, night and day, among the autumn flowers. The winter she passes in an earth burrow dug by herself and unaided establishes a colony in the spring. These colonies perish and the mother queen retains the old use of her frail wings in the field at least four months. Now, we know that the wings of the worker honeybee wear out in less than half that time; also that the old queens who take to the field after the nest breaks up in August frequently hang suspended by one wing, sometimes dead, sometimes still, sometimes dangling. Nature does not supply insects with new wing cells as they draw out the old ones. So the loss of the power of flight at this season of the year to the queen bumblebee means the loss of life.

Prof. H. A. Howell, of Savannah, Cala.
Recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"As long as I can remember my mother was a faithful user and friend of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, but never in my life have I realized its true value until now," writes Prof. H. A. Howell, of Howell's American School, Havana, Cuba. "On the night of February 3, our baby was taken sick with a very severe cold, the next day was worse and the following night his condition was desperate. He could not lie down and it was necessary to have him in the arms every moment. Even then his breathing was difficult. I did not think he would live until morning. At last I thought of my mother's remedy, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which we gave, and it afforded prompt relief, and now, three days later, he has fully recovered. Under the circumstances I would not hesitate a moment in saying that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and that only, saved the life of our dear little boy." For sale at Severs' Drug Co.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors practice in a local disease and prescribed local remedies, which continually failed to cure with local treatment. It is now known that catarrh is a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. The Constitutional Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly upon the mucous surfaces of the system. ## CAUGHT BY THE GRIP-- RELEASED BY PE-RU-NA.

La Grippe Is Epidemic Catarrh.

THIS disease now known as 'grippe' is very closely resembles a cold, but is more tenacious in its hold upon the system and produces more profound disturbances.

Grippe is in reality epidemic catarrh. When it once begins it spreads over the entire system.

People do not catch the grippe from each other, but each one catches it from the environment.

Most Effective Medicine Ever Tried for La Grippe.

Bob, L. Madison, A. M., Principal of Oldham High School, Painter, N.C., is chairman of the Jackson County Board of Education.

He is a writer of occasional verse and has contributed to a number of leading papers and magazines--religious, educational and secular.

In speaking of Peruña, Mr. Madison says:

"I am hardly ever without Peruña in my home. It is the most effective medicine that I have ever tried for a grippe."

"I also cure a wife of nasal catarrh and a condition of the eye which was such that she could not sleep at night because through her nostrils."

"In consequence, an inflamed condition of the throat was brought about, getting worse and worse and yielding to no remedy until Peruña was tried."

Healthy Mucous Membranes.

It is the mucous membranes of the nose, throat and lungs, when in a normal state, are the best barrier against the invasion of grippe.

But when the mucous membranes become slightly deranged, the mucous membranes then the victim becomes an easier prey to the grippe.

This in part explains why some people get the grippe, while others do not.

It is also a cure for grippe to keep the system free from catarrh. In attempting to do this most people have found Peruña to be invaluable.

Systemic Catarrh, the Result of La Grippe.

Mr. Victor Painaud, 22 Madison St., Topeka, Kan., member of Knights and Ladies of Service, writes:

"Six years ago I had a grippe, which was followed by systemic catarrh."

"The only thing I used was Peruña and Manalin, and I have been in better health the last three years than for years before."

"Give Peruña all the credit for my good health."

LITTLE BEING ACCOMPLISHED

Senatorial Deadlock and Tension Over Local Option Bill Have Put the Brakes on All the Normal Activities of the Present Assembly—All the "Interests" Appear to Be Fighting for Delay and the Session Is Merely Dragging Along.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 25.—One would think the senatorial fight had become a stale and uninteresting subject in Frankfort by this time, but it is nearly the sole topic of conversation now, just as it was the first week in January, and even little incidents like classes that happen together in the hotels every day and night. The deadlock still continues and the death of Representative McKnight of Mason county seems to have made no change in the situation, except that it makes it easier to get the bill through before McKnight's death. Beckham lost another vote when Representative Arnett of Covington voted for Congressman Ollie James, but as long as none of the Democrats who desert Beckham vote for Bradley, the deadlock will continue. The county unit system in the bill is still being fought, and it is still asserted that upon its finality will depend the result of the senatorial race. The legislative session will end by limitation on March 17, so that only about three weeks more re-

SENATOR CONN LINN.

[President Pro Tem of the Senate] main in which to do anything. All the "interests" appear to be fighting for delay. Motions to adjourn early each day without doing any real work are constantly adopted. As a result all bills will be jammed toward the last two days of the session, and some previous legislation will likely be enacted. There is some talk of an extra session being called, but it is not believed that Governor Wilson will call one unless the appropriation to complete the new statehouse fails to pass, and even that may not induce him to call one.

The senate has passed by a unanimous vote the Renaker bill providing a pension for indigent and disabled Con-

After suffering for seven years, this woman was restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Read her letter.

Mrs. Sallie French, of Pocaunah, Ind., Ter., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I had female troubles for seven years—was all run down, and so nervous I could not do any work. The doctors treated me for different troubles, but did me no good. While in this condition I wrote to Mrs. Pinkham for advice and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am now strong and well."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female troubles. It is especially suited for thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulence, indigestion, dizziness, overstrain, prostration, etc.

Don't hesitate to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about your sickness you do not understand. We will treat you with confidence and privacy.

No woman ever regretted writing her, and because of her vast experience she has helped thousands.

Confederate veterans. The provisions in the bill are carefully guarded and no one can receive $125 per year if he has as much as $600 worth of property, nor if he has a member of his immediate family that is able to take care of him. A board of investigation in each county is provided for, and each member of the board must have his case passed on by his board favorably before he can draw the pension from the state. The bill does not conflict or interfere with the Confederate Soldiers' Home at Pewee Valley. It is believed the bill will pass the house of representatives but with little opposition, and it is almost adopted, providing that any man who accompanied his master while serving in the Confederate army, and who is indigent or disabled, may also be entitled to a pension. This provision was in the bill as first presented but owing to the fact that the section was not carefully drawn, it was struck out.

Neither the senate nor house has taken any final action yet on the numerous bills to provide for the dog-tax law, but they may do so next week, and this week. The sheep breeders are making an active fight against the repeal of the law, and a number of persons have changed their views since coming here. The State Farmers' Institute, which met here last week, with the attendance of 1,000 men from all over the state, adopted by an almost unanimous vote a resolution calling upon the legislature not to repeal the dog tax. The advocates of the repeal, however, are vehement in their demands for the passage of the bill, and it may be pushed very hard.

There seems to be something curious, not to say penurious, about the Kentucky legislatures, or rather some of the Kentucky legislatures. When the legislatures of other states find that something is needed by the state, they appropriate enough money to get what is wanted and money to do first class work, whereas in Kentucky nothing is done worth doing well. Not so in Kentucky, however. Ordinarily when the state of Kentucky needs something that other states readily pay $50,000 or $60,000 for, to get it first class, the people of Kentucky expect to be paid half and even down to $5,000 or $10,000, which results in poor building or poor service. As an example, other states expend from $75,000 to $200,000 a year to enforce their pure food laws, while Kentucky expends but $15,000, and as a consequence the fine glass cut the first six months each year and nothing can be done the last six months to prosecute the violators of the pure food laws. A recent legislature appropriated a million dollars for a new statehouse and a magnificent building it is expected, but it has not yet started. To be sure some of the show-porners talk they want the building furnished out of a 10-cent store. A million-dollar structure should have all its appointments in keeping with its appearance, and if a proper appropriation is made, Kentucky will have a state pride. If the penurious ones get in their work, everybody will be disgusted with it and in a short time all the cheap furniture will be thrown out or worn out and another appropriation will be necessary, which means that the first inadequate appropriation will be an absolute loss.

"I was crippled I crooked severely and lame. After having my shoes and clothes mended, I was compelled to walk by suffering the pain. Then I began to have pains all through my body. I went to see Dr. Miles Nervine, bought a bottle and I commenced to take it from the start and for the past six months I have scarcely had a pain and am able to walk again."

may mean political suicide to anyone who dares to oppose any bill that stands for educational progress. This was demonstrated in the house last week when the bill appropriating $500,000 to the state college and the two state normal schools came up for discussion and passage. The bill gives $100,000 to the state college, one-third and $200,000 to the state college, one-third to be paid this year, one-third next year and the other third in 1910. The cheese-parers all expressed themselves as being in favor of the bill, but they urged that the amounts appropriated were too large. The argument reduced to its final absurdity would be the same as asking the legislature to meet in a tent without a stove in zero weather. The c. p. a., however, were not in the majority and the bill passed by a vote of 69 to 17, and the senate passed it without a vote, except unanimously. All of which goes to show that the record-maker and alleged economist, who wants to give you a mosquito-bar overcoat when a chinchilla would hardly keep you warm, does not always succeed.

There is a bitter war on between two factions of the Kentucky Dairymen's association, and it looks like two associations will be the result. It all comes about over the bill in the legislature providing for a rigid inspection of dairies and for the removal of all cows found to be infected with tuberculosis. The annual meeting of the association was held here last week, and after a spirited argument over the propriety of passing the bill, the meeting split up like a political convention and the two groups formed a new association. Some of the dairymen say that every herd of cows in the state has more or less tuberculosis in it and that such has been the case from time immemorial, and that if the proposed law passes, nearly every herd of dairy cows in the state will have to be slaughtered when there is no real reason for it.

Senator Burnam of Madison county has introduced a bill that is intended to reach the same result but is more lenient on the right side.

The bill provides that where two or more persons conspire together to commit some unlawful act and do commit said act, the circuit judge, attorney general or the commonwealth's attorney may have a change of venue to another county to hear the trial, provided the grand jury of that county and if the grand jury of that county and if the act was committed.

It is claimed that this is the only method by which a fair and impartial investigation of the "night riders" association can be conducted.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts gently yet promptly on the bowels and relieves inflammation at the same time. It is pleasant to take and especially recommended for children, as it tastes nearly as good as maple sugar.

It is sold at all druggists.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers, filtering out waste and impurities in the blood.

If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or uneasy heartburn, and makes one feel as though he had heartburn, because the kidney is over-working blood through veins and arteries.

It is a great pain to the kidney, the urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The milk of the Swamp-Ridge, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Ridge, the greatest kidney medicine soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing diseases.

The Fighting Chance.

my sea to mural banters when they encountered. But now something appeared to be lacking in their rather lassitude—something of the usual flavor which once had saluted even the laziest of them with a sense of chance. Seward, too, had ceased to be amused at the spectacle of Plank's callifike infatuation, and Leila Mortimer's bored smile had lasted so long that her olive-pink cheeks were still and she had no more attractions with a little shrug that was also something of a shiver. Then, looking stupidly around, she encountered Seward's eyes, and during a moment's hesitation they considered one another with an increasing curiosity that slowly became temptation and desire. And her eyes said very plain and wickedly to Seward: "Oho, my friend! So it bares you to see Mr. Plank nopolizing an engaged girl who belongs to Howard Quarrel!"

"I'm sorry," he said, "to see that you took Plank away from temptation. I understand that the young man had been incontinently removed. He, Plank, never doubted that he was a perfectly free agent; decided that the time had arrived for triumphant retribution.

ITCHING ECZEMA FIFTY-FIVE YEARS

Suffered Torments from Birth—Boils Formed as Big as Walnuts—in Frightful Condition and Could Hardly Work—Tried All Kinds of Remedies to No Avail—At Last

WHOLLY CURED IN 8 MONTHS BY CUTICURA

"I had an itching tormenting eczema ever since I came into the world, and I am now a man fifty-five years old. I tried all kinds of medicaments I heard of, but nothing would do me good, and I was in a frightful condition. At last my blood was so bad that I broke out all over with boils, and they grew so large and growing until they were as big as walnuts, causing great pain and misery. I thought I must take off my clothes or my whole body, but I kept from scratching as well as I could. I was so run down that I had to give up work. Mr. Nelson R. Burnett recommended the use of Cuticura Remedies, telling me to use the oil, soap, ointment, and, in time, cure me. I used the Cuticura Soap, Ointment, Resolvent, and Pill for eight months, and I am now wholly cured. I am really grateful to Cuticura Remedies. I cordially recommend Cuticura Remedies to all who are afflicted with this disease. I believe that if they will use them according to directions they will find them all the time are represented to be Any one doubting the truth of what I have written may write to Mr. Burnett, who will cheerfully furnish me his statement."

"Hale Bowditch, E. D. 3, Cedar Corners, Tipton, Ia., Aug. 17, 1907."

I sincerely endorse the above statement. It is true. I know Mr. Bowditch and know the condition he was in. He never tires of praising the Cuticura Remedies.

CRANKY METAL.

Moods and Mystery That Are Embodied in a Piece of Steel.

A cutlery company will make a hundred razors from the same piece of steel by the same process, and part of the razors will be good and part of the razors bad. It may be fifty or even seventy-five or twenty-five—nobody knows. The maker doesn't know; the buyer doesn't know. Barbers say that even the price doesn't seem to make much difference. You can get a good razor for $1.00 and a bad one for $5. And the same razor will get a good edge today, so that you can hardly shave with it, and tomorrow, without additional sharpening, it will work like a charm.

One tap will go on a belt easily and stay there. Another tap will hardly go on at all. A third may be screwed on tight and snug and yet keep coming off spite of all that can be done.

Turn About.

In a Great Western railway carriage on the way up to London a youth had disturbed and annoyed the other passengers by loud and foolish noise remarks during a great part of the journey. The conductor, Mr. Clegg, of the asylum said, "I often think how nice the asylum looks from the railway."

"Some day," growled an old gentleman, "you will probably have occasion to remark how nice the railway looks from the asylum"—London Answer.

A LEARNED LUNATIC.

Alexander Cruden, the Compiler of the Bible Concordance.

Alexander Cruden, the persevering and painstaking compiler of the famous Concordance to the Bible, was a prominent bookseller to the queen of George II. by Sir Robert Walpole. The Concordance, his name was published and dedicated to Queen Caroline in 1737. It was permitted to present a copy of it in person to her majesty, who, he said, smiled upon him and assured him she was much obliged to him. She died in 1757, and Cruden died in 1763.

Cruden was a very eccentric character and was thrice placed in a lunatic asylum. He designated himself "Alexander the Corrector" and also the "Corrector of Morals." His claim to the latter title was based upon the fact that when he met in public places on Sundays and admonished them to go home and keep the Sabbath day holy. He was a great believer in the distribution of tracts and spent a great part of his means in this way.

It seemed difficult to believe that an eccentric man of this sort should have his name associated with such a remarkably painstaking book as his Concordance undoubtedly is. As it must have cost an enormous amount of time and labor to compile it, but it was probably the severity of his occupation that unhinged his mind. He died at Camden street, Islington, on Nov. 1, 1770.

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO.

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

J. J. Dyer, living in Cleverport, Ky.

says: I have kept Doan's Kidney Pills so constantly in the house for over ten years and have never found a remedy that could help me. Three years ago my back was so lame and sore that I was scarcely able to straighten after assuming a stooped position. We ever I contracted the slightest cold it was sure to settle on my kidneys and greatly aggravate my suffering. A few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills have never failed to bring me prompt relief, and my wife has used them with excellent results. I procure Doan's Kidney Pills at Fisher's drug store, and it gives me great pleasure to recommend them to other persons afflicted with kidney complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Saved From Being a Cripple For Life.

"Almost six or seven weeks ago I became paralyzed all at once with rheumatism," writes Mrs. Louis McKinley, 913 Seventh Street, Oakland, Cal. "I struck the hip on the back and extended the hip on my right leg down to my foot. The attack was so severe that I could not move in bed and was afraid that I should be a cripple for life."

"About twelve years ago I received a sample bottle of your Liniment but never had occasion to use it, as I have always been well, but something told me that Sloan's Liniment would help me. I prepared a second cold treatment twenty-four years afterward and dedicated it to her grandson, George III. For this and a third edition of it he repaid a reward of

It seemed difficult to believe that an eccentric man of this sort should have his name associated with such a remarkably painstaking book as his Concordance undoubtedly is. As it must have cost an enormous amount of time and labor to compile it, but it was probably the severity of his occupation that unhinged his mind. He died at Camden street, Islington, on Nov. 1, 1770.

Cruden was a very eccentric character and was thrice placed in a lunatic asylum. He designated himself "Alexander the Corrector" and also the "Corrector of Morals."

His claim to the latter title was based upon the fact that when he met in public places on Sundays and admonished them to go home and keep the Sabbath day holy. He was a great believer in the distribution of tracts and spent a great part of his means in this way.

MAKE THIS UP AT YOUR HOME

Prepare It At Home By Shaking Ingredients Well In A Bottle.

What will appear very interesting to many people here is the article taken from a New York daily paper, giving a simple prescription, as formulated by a noted authority, who claims that he has found a positive remedy to cure almost any case of backache or kidney or bladder derangement, in the following simple prescription, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Karon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bed time.

A well-known druggist here at home, when asked regarding this prescription, stated that the ingredients are all harm less, and can be obtained at a small cost from any good prescription pharmacy, or the mixture would be put up if asked to do so. He further stated that while this prescription is often in rheumatic afflictions with splendid results, he could see no reason why it would not be a splendid remedy for kidney and urinary troubles and backache, as it has a peculiar action upon the kidney structure, cleansing these most important organs and helping them to sift and filter from the blood the foul acids and waste matter which cause sickness and suffering. Those of our readers who suffer can make no mistake in giving it a trial.

A Tremendous Sacrifice Sale

THE PUBLIC BENEFITS

THE public of Louisville and the entire states of Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana will benefit greatly by Jas. Greene's big purchase of a number of manufacturers surplus furniture and carpet stocks, $185,000 in all, consisting of furniture, of every description, carpets, rugs, curtains, stoves and household goods. Jas. Greene, of Louisville, Kentucky, secured seven carloads of manufacturers surplus stocks at an unheard of low figure ON ACCOUNT OF THE RECENT CONDITION OF THE MONEY MARKET. THE MANUFACTURERS HAD TO SELL and Jas. Greene obtained the stocks at practically his own price. Jas. Greene says that he proposes to give the people of LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY, OHIO and INDIANA, the benefit of this great purchase of manufacturers surplus stocks, by giving the people the most stupendous and most remarkable ten day sale on furniture, carpets, rugs, curtains, household goods, etc., that was ever given in the State of Kentucky. The entire stocks, direct from the manufacturers will be sold at such ridiculously low prices that the public will be amazed. This ten day sale will be without question of a doubt the biggest bargain feast and sale of furniture that was ever given in the South, the time before, or that will ever occur here again. Commercial circles will be astounded at the tremendous gains offered. It will be a bonanza earthquake of low prices on good quality furniture, carpets, etc., that will arouse the people of Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana, and vicinity from routine to circumference. It took great nerve and a big outlay of ready cash to buy this large surplus of manufacturers stocks for a city the size of Louisville, for, as a rule, these great snaps are usually gobbled up by the largest stores in New York, Philadelphia and Chicago, but Jas. Greene says there is nothing too good for the people of Kentucky and vicinity and he proposes to give the public a stupendous ten day sale the above stocks that will be the talk of the entire state and surrounding country for the next ten years to come. It will be a premier effort in value-giving on furniture such as the public will long remember, as never heretofore have our people been able to buy furniture, of every description, carpets, rugs and house furnishings at less than actual wholesale cost of manufacturers.

The Jas. Greene Furniture Building is now closed in order to get these great surplus stocks in readiness for the opening day's sale, and the store will not be open for business until the opening day of the sale, which will be WEDNESDAY MORNING, AT 8:30 A. M., MARCH 11TH. This is no ordinary furniture sale, but one in fact and section of any community, Jas. Greene, of Louisville, will be certainly prepared for immense crowds of people, having already engaged hundreds of extra salespeople in order to be able to wait upon the large crowds attending the sale during this stupendous ten days' furniture sacrifice. The people of Louisville, Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana and vicinity have never heretofore had an opportunity of attending such a sacrifice sale as Greene's Manufacturers Outlet Furniture Sale will afford the public. Look for the big green and white signs, JAMES GREENE'S MANUFACTURERS' OUTLET FURNITURE SALE, 425—427—429 East Market St., Louisville, Ky.
